ANZAC DAWN PARADE

It was a real privilege to accompany 50 Devon students to the ANZAC Dawn Parade last Sunday. The turnout was phenomenal! My grateful thanks to the staff, parents and caregivers who sacrificed their Sunday sleep in to support the children at this event.

PARENT LINK

Our next Parent Link meeting is on Monday 10 May at 7pm in the staffroom. All parents and caregivers are most welcome to attend.

BASKETBALL - 2010 - RESULTS

Games played in the weekend. Y8 Boys Devon Suns vs Mangorei Breakers - 76-6(win). Excellent team effort. Great shooting and rebounding by Takarangi T .

GUITARS NEEDED

There is a lot of enthusiasm for guitars in the school at the moment. We have some very talented students and some great opportunities for them. We are looking for more guitars to help support these students. If you have a guitar that you are able to donate to school we would greatly appreciate it.

BOT ELECTIONS

The results of the Board of Trustees elections are:

Parent Representative - Stephen Black and the Staff Representative - Alana Glentworth.

BRENDA BALLINGER MEMORIAL CROSS COUNTRY SCHOOLS CHALLENGE

This annual event is being held at 2pm on Saturday 15 May at St. Joseph's School, Calvert Road. It would be great to have a good turnout of Devon's keen runners. The course is 2 km over the St Josephs/Devon Intermediate fields. The winning school receives a cup and all entrants are eligible for a large number of spot prizes. Interested students are to register with Mrs Parkinson by Friday 7 May. We will go out for a couple of training runs prior to the event.
