Wow, we are heading in to the final term already, and what an amazing year we have had. It has been full, exciting and very rewarding. I am extremely proud of the diligence, integrity and service class members have shown throughout the year. They are now reaping the rewards with accelerated progress in curriculum areas, greater social confidence, both inside and outside the classroom, and continued maintenance of their Mana.

Our Homework focus for the term is grammar, statistics and vocabulary development in the form of a Code Cracker Activity. Points will be scored for each letter solved and these will form dollar credits for the end of year. Dollars will also be earned for various other things throughout the term. Students will spend their earnings on items they have donated as well as items I have purchased. It will be a wonderful way to celebrate our year together. I trust you will all have a well earned break over the holidays and return with renewed vigour and enthusiasm for learning.
