Devon Intermediate School was opened in February 1958, to meet the needs of the families in the western sector of New Plymouth.

The site chosen for the school has an interesting history dating back to pre-European times when it was part of the traditional path used by the Maori to go to Ngamotu. In 1840 a cottage was built here by a pioneer settler who drew the land in a ballot. Several more houses were built on the land before it became a nursery in 1882. After this business closed in 1914, the land gradually reverted to bush, scrub and swamp.

Today the school is set in attractive park-like surroundings, with extensive playing areas, a large swimming pool, hall, technology facilities and a modern library. All classrooms are the subject of an ongoing programme of modernisation and an extensive landscape plan contributes to a pleasant environment of learning.

From the very beginning, the school's first principal, Mr A.L. Herdman, insisted that hard work, coupled with a striving for excellence, should be practised in all aspects of school life. These qualities have been stressed by successive principals and are as important to the philosophy of Devon Intermediate today as they were in 1958.

Devon Intermediate is involved in a Ministry of Education initiative called “Positive Behaviour for Learning - School Wide”.

It is a research based programme focusing on working together to maintain a positive school environment with excellent learning relationships thus enabling our students to engage and achieve.

The school-wide structure has six major components:

- An agreed upon and common approach to discipline, and a positive statement of purpose.
- A small number of positively stated behavioural expectations for all students and staff.
- Procedures for teaching these expectations to students.
- A continuum of procedures for encouraging and maintaining these expectations.
- A continuum for discouraging rule-violating behaviour.
- Procedures for monitoring and evaluating the effectiveness of the discipline system on a regular and frequent basis.

MANA represents school wide positive behaviour for learning at Devon Intermediate.

Our MANA framework expectations are:

RESPECT - be caring and considerate.

- Use polite and appropriate language with a suitable tone.
- Treat others as you wish to be treated.
- Accept and value differences.
- Use manners at all times.
- Care for all property.
- Follow instructions immediately.

DILIGENCE - achieve your personal best.

- Do everything to the best of your ability.
- Right place, right time, right gear.
- Perseverance - finish what your start.
- Wear the correct uniform with pride.

INTEGRITY - be honest and trustworthy.

- Take responsibility for your own choices and actions.
- Speak the truth with kindness.
- Honour your commitments.

SERVICE - help and be actively involved

- Contribute for the right reasons.
- Be positively involved.
- Have an attitude of gratitude.
- Use your initiative - help before you are asked.

MANA is based on teaching behaviour expectations just as we teach any other subject. Each fortnight, a new MANA expectation is introduced at assembly and taught in our classrooms.

Affirming and acknowledging appropriate behaviour

MANA Tickets: Students earn these by displaying the week's MANA focus. These are recorded in student's diaries and can be redeemed for badges and MANA lunches.

MANA Reward Days: These are celebration days which are held twice a term. Eligible students will have met MANA expectations by gaining the points required.

MANA Certificates: These are awarded at Friday assembly to selected students who have displayed the MANA focus.

MANA Badges: Students can earn a bronze, silver, gold and honours badge for accumulating MANA tickets in their diary. Students proudly display these badges on their polo and sweatshirt.

We endeavour to provide our students with the opportunity to learn skills, knowledge and develop positive attitudes to learning through a varied curriculum and an inclusive environment. Students will be able to develop personal interests, build independence, self-confidence and take increasing responsibility for their own learning.

Our school is constantly developing our curriculum to cater for students needs and we have an emphasis on ensuring numeracy and literacy skills are at the fore-front of our teaching programme. You can be confident that your child's experiences at Devon Intermediate will provide opportunities in academic, sporting, cultural and social activities that ensure the holistic development of your child.

What is a digital learning class at Devon Intermediate?

A digital learning class requires students to have their own Chromebook to access and engage in classroom learning. Students use their assigned school email address on their Chromebook to access and complete their learning.

What is the purpose of digital learning classes at Devon?

The purpose is to deliver the curriculum largely through a digital platform. Students will still cover all of the same subjects and learning to meet their needs.

It allows students and whanau to have access to the learning program through class sites and/or Hāpara, creating a stronger connection between home and school.

Additional online programs, apps and extensions can help support learners across all levels of the curriculum.

For some students, using a device can reduce the barriers for them to access their learning.

While devices (Chromebooks) are required in a digital learning class, exercise books are also part of their stationery requirements. This is because not all work is done on the device, the same as in life.

Working within a digital learning class means that students can build and understanding and confidence using a device as a learning tool, not just a way to access games and the latest fads.

What are some reasons to select a digital learning class at Devon?

Students learn how to manage themselves when using a device for learning.

Students can access additional support materials - previous lessons, videos, websites, etc. - for their learning.

Students learn how to sort and organise documents digitally in a way that enables them to access them again later.

Students learn how to use and navigate different digital applications. For example, we utilise the Google Suite of applications.

Attendance

Every day a student does not attend school, is a lost learning opportunity. Regular daily attendance is the key to successful learning outcomes. All students are required by law to attend school every day. If your child is unable to attend school for any reason, please inform us by phone, email or the Skool Loop app, or by sending us a signed note explaining the child's absence. Attendance is checked three times daily and where necessary, phone calls/text messages are made to parents to check on the whereabouts of students. A medical certificate must be provided for absences of three days or more. Students arriving later report to the office before going to class after 9am.

Bus Services

School bus services are operated by Transit Coachlines (phone 7575783).

Bikes and Scooters

Bikes and scooters stored at school during the day must be securely locked. Please ensure that bicycles are road worthy, your child's helmet fits securely and is worn at all times. Children should have a sound knowledge of the road rules and be familiar with the safest route to school.

Cell Phones

If it is necessary for a student to bring a cell phone to school it must be handed in to the office during the day. Students are not allowed to have phones in class. We do not accept responsibility for lost or stolen cell phones.

Collecting Children

Parents who wish to collect their child during the school day are to report to the office. Your child will then be notified of your arrival and meet you in the student reception area, where he/she will be signed out.

Library/Learning Centre

Our Library is available during class time and break times for use.

Instrumental Tuition

Students may receive tuition in string, brass and keyboard at school as part of the out of school Music programme.

Parent Link Group

We strongly encourage and highly value parental involvement in the life of our school. Our Parent Link Group has a key role within our school and over the past few years they have done a fantastic job with fundraising and provide a valuable link between home and school. Parents are actively encouraged to contact the school to discuss matters of student interest. This enables the Leadership Team and staff to be fully informed at all times regarding home perspectives and circumstances.
