Devon Intermediate School Newsletter

28 May 2025

Kia ora Whanau

A reminder that we will be holding our Teacher Only Day this Friday May 30, so there will be no normal classes. Monday June 2 the school is shut due to it being Kings Birthday Weekend and we welcome students back on Tuesday June 3. I hope everyone has a lovely long weekend.

Congratulations to those students who attended the NYLD conference in Palmerston North last week. I received an amazing email from the owner of the motel they stayed at, congratulating our students on their behaviour and respect. Our young people were a credit to their whanau and the school.

Congratulations also to the Year 7 students who are currently visiting our contributing schools along with our Head Students. They are involved in talking to the Year 6 students about Devon Intermediate and the type of things we do here.

2026 ENROLMENTS

We are now taking enrolments for Year 7s for 2026.

Please follow the link below to complete the online enrolment form if you have someone coming in next year. Alternatively please share with anyone you know of who has a year 7 student coming to Devon.

Our AIM's games Hip Hop team will be holding a Quiz Night fundraiser at the Good Home on Tuesday June 10. You need 6 people per team and the cost is $15 per person. Teams pay on the night at the Good Home. Teams can register by calling the school office on 06 7585266 or emailing office@devonint.school.nz Please come along and help support our incredible team of dancers get to Tauranga for this amazing event. Bring some extra cash for the raffles we will be running.

The last two days of this term there will be no normal classes as we will be holding our pathway and planning meetings. Students and whanau will meet with the teacher to discuss progress to date and to set goals for the second half of the year. More information will come out closer to the time.

WILLIAM PIKE EVENTS

The William Pike Roopu has had an action-packed few weeks! We planted 660 trees on a local farm, enjoyed a scenic bike ride along the coastal walkway all the way to Te Rewarewa Bridge, and challenged ourselves with a rock climbing session at the YMCA.
